The Lessons

FIRST READING: Acts 11: 1-18

The people sit.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Now the apostles and the believers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also accepted the word of God. So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him, saying, “Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?” Then Peter began to explain it to them, step by step, saying, “I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. There was something like a large sheet coming down from heaven, being lowered by its four corners; and it came close to me. As I looked at it closely I saw four-footed animals, beasts of prey, reptiles, and birds of the air. I also heard a voice saying to me, ‘Get up, Peter; kill and eat.’ But I replied, ‘By no means, Lord; for nothing profane or unclean has ever entered my mouth.’ But a second time the voice answered from heaven, ‘What God has made clean, you must not call profane.’ This happened three times; then everything was pulled up again to heaven. At that very moment three men, sent to me from Caesarea, arrived at the house where we were. The Spirit told me to go with them and not to make a distinction between them and us. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man’s house. He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, ‘Send to Joppa and bring Simon, who is called Peter; he will give you a message by which you and your entire household will be saved.’ And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as it had upon us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’ If then God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?” When they heard this, they were silenced. And they praised God, saying, “Then God has given even to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life.”

SECOND READING: Revelation 21:1-6

The people sit.

A Reading from the Revelation of John.

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

“See, the home of God is among mortals.

He will dwell with them;

they will be his peoples,

and God himself will be with them;

he will wipe every tear from their eyes.

Death will be no more;

mourning and crying and pain will be no more,

for the first things have passed away.”

And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.” Also he said, “Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.” Then he said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.”

GOSPEL: John 13:31-35

All stand.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

[At the last supper, when Judas] had gone out, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come.’ I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

Deacon        The Gospel of the Lord.
People        Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

Reverend Benedict Varnum

THE CREED

All stand.

We believe in one God,
    the Father, the Almighty,
    maker of heaven and earth,
    of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
    the only Son of God,
    eternally begotten of the Father,
    God from God, Light from Light,
    true God from true God,
    begotten, not made,
    of one Being with the Father.
    Through him all things were made.
    For us and for our salvation
        he came down from heaven:
    by the power of the Holy Spirit
        he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
    and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
    he suffered death and was buried.
    On the third day he rose again
        in accordance with the Scriptures;
    he ascended into heaven
        and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
    He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
    and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
    who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
    With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

People            We lift them to the Lord.

PROPER PREFACE

Facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Holy, holy, holy Lord

Celebrant and People

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might,

san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -

san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

The People stand or kneel.

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

EPICLESIS

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

June 5th – a Pentecost Celebration!

10:30 combined service and Potluck Lunch

Pentecost is often called “the birthday of the Church,” because of the Holy Spirit coming down on the disciples and giving them the gifts they needed to share the message of Jesus with the world. This year on Pentecost Sunday, we’ll celebrate the Feast Day with a combined worship service at 10:30, and revive a church tradition from several years ago – the Pentecost Picnic! The Parish Life Committee has invited us to potluck this party, spill out from the Parish Hall onto the green space towards the playground, and share favorite recipes and meet more people from church! There will be great food and fun activities for kids.

This year, we’ll also mark milestones for our own church: the conclusion of our very strong three-year Capital Campaign: “Our Roots, Our Family, Our Future.” We’ll also have an opportunity to offer pledges for a Fourth Year Campaign, which we’ll hear more about in May, and which will help our church stay even stronger as we live into our mission to be a “growing, faithful, inclusive, and caring community committed to the ministry and teachings of Jesus Christ,” and welcoming others into this community in the spirit of our “Come, Grow With Us” slogan.

We’ll hold a combined worship service at 10:30 that day (there will not be an 8:30 service) as a way to gather our whole community together. Hope to see you there!

Vacation Bible School (VBS) Returns!

Vacation Bible School back at St. Augustine! Sunday, June 12-Tuesday, June 14 from 5:30 PM-7:30 PM. We will have dinner at 5:30 followed by lessons, crafts & music. ## Spa Day Thank You

The Outreach Committee was able to plan an amazing Spa day for the ladies living at the Magdalene House presently. Magdalene Omaha is a home that delivers hope, healing, and economic self-empowerment for survivors of sex trafficking, prostitution, and addiction through multiple programs. On Thursday, 5 women came to St. Augustine for facials, massages, haircuts and meditation, and then went to a nail salon for manicures, pedicures and brow waxing. The ladies also went home with an extremely generous goodie bag. Thanks for the donations of time and talent as well as goodie bag offerings from:

- Beth Kujath who offered Red Aspen Dash press on nails www.redaspenlove.com/bethkujath
- Stephanie Weaver who offered Beautycounter products www.beautycounter.com/stephanieweaver
- Lani from Glow at Salon Z who offered a gift certificate for a free hair cut to each lady 402-312-3993
- Cari Hagenmoser who offered Color Street nail polish cari.green@yahoo.com
- Maya P. who offered neck and shoulder massages from Sakoon the Spa 531-466-8200
- Rachel Sennett, Miss NE for America Strong 2022 who offered hair cuts from Seven Salon, along with her salon owner Shannon Bingham who connected us 402-934-2177
- And Ida Marie Hebrank who offered 30 minute guided meditations

If you would like to offer a donation to cover what was paid for food, facial products, manicures, pedicures & waxing, please make sure your check memo line or envelope for cash say “Magdalene Spa Day” so it will go back into the correct fund. Thank You!!

Jim Tomanek Retiring from COPE

Jim Tomanek has announced to the COPE Board of Directors, his plans to retire as the COPE Executive Director at the end of the summer or until a suitable replacement is found. Therefore, a search committee has been formed to start the replacement process as soon as possible.

Jim has been active in Cope starting in 2004 with serving breakfast to the English-speaking classes. He's volunteered 2012-2014, at which time he started serving on the COPE board until he was hired as Executive Director in February 2016.

The board will have very big shoes to fill. Please pray for the committee, board, and the next director of COPE. There will be a celebration for Jim's service in the future.

The Our Roots, Our Family, Our Future Campaign

This Spring marks an incredible milestone for our parish campaign, "Our Roots, Our Family, Our Future." May 31st, 2022 will mark a very successful completion of our three-year capital campaign. We have kept a powerful and faithful commitment to this campaign even under the surprise challenge of several pandemic years, and because of a lot of communication, hard work, and careful management, we have begun enjoying the fruits of our labor in our new spaces, with Sunday School and programs for our youth and children, new outreach initiatives and partnerships with COPE and the Magdalene Community, and many parish celebrations in our Parish Hall. We'll be finishing the three-year campaign very strong. We'll also be entering our Year Four campaign as a way to position our parish's finances for strength, health, and a great capacity for ministry for the coming years, and we'll have some opportunities to hear how things are going and look at our goals ahead in this coming month.

Through May, please keep an eye on your mail for updates and invitations around the campaign. Our parish staff and leadership will be sending on letters in the mail with some updates, info, and invitations. Please also Save the Date for:

Vestry Notes – April

The Vestry met for an annual retreat on April 2nd and spent time together in prayer, getting to know each other more, talking about our church, and reviewing Vestry responsibilities. We talked about some goals for the remainder of this calendar year, including celebrating the conclusion of our three-year Capital Campaign (which ends May 30th), entering into our Year Four campaign (June 1st), and doing deep check-ins with the parish over the summer and early fall time as we continue returning from covid and living into the capabilities of our new space – for ourselves, our ministry partners, and our community.
